

EDREECE D. REDMOND

Edreece D. Redmond is a Senior Level Director who is a highly effective and focused leader with demonstrated experience at achieving strategic results. He possesses a comprehensive knowledge of Operational Management. Edreece is a natural leader with a high degree of integrity and an outstanding work ethic. He is driven to motivate teams to exceed business operational goals and targets.

Over the past six years Edreece has served in a few roles at Tindley Accelerated Schools, most recently as the Executive Director of Operations. In this role he has planned and executed many strategic projects, including most recently, the acquisition and re-development of the former IPS School 98 into the current Tindley Summit Academy. Prior to arriving at Tindley Accelerated Schools, Edreece had the opportunity to lead multiple successful project teams within government and regulatory environments. The following quote provides a great reflection on Mr. Redmond's ability:

"Mr. Redmond has a rich acumen in operations, project management, and collaboration. He has a wealth of experience in managing daily operations, facility planning, vendor procurement and relations, space utilization, and compliance. His familiarity with entrepreneurial not-for-profit scale, operational oversight, and strategic collaboration is second to none. In short, Mr. Redmond is a consummate professional and is poised to lead at the executive level."
